Under One Roof

How households are changing worldwide rink +++ In future more households in almost all countries +++ One-person households most prevalent in wealthy countries with many old people +++ Religious people live in large households +++ Larg-

Even in many shrinking societies the number of households is growing +++ No country so far has fewer than two people per household +++ In many transition states three- and four-person households c